

Goals and Student Learning Outcomes

Goal #1: To develop competent practitioners capable of functioning in the high technical and dynamic field of Radiologic Technology

- Students/Graduates will demonstrate appropriate technical and affective skills in the clinical setting
- Demonstrates competence in Age Specific Patient Care Skills
- The student will demonstrate competency in radiation safety measures

Goal #2: To develop competent, practitioners who demonstrate proficiency in communication skills

- The student will demonstrate appropriate oral communication skills
- The student will demonstrate competence in written communication skills

Goal #3: To develop competent, practitioners who demonstrate proficiency in critical thinking, problem-solving skills

- The student will demonstrate competency in didactic critical thinking and problem solving skills
- The student will demonstrate competence in clinical critical thinking and problem solving skills

Goal #4: To develop competent, practitioners who model professionalism

- Alumni/Students will document professional development and life-long learning
- Students will determine the importance of continued professional development